Refund and Shipping Policies for Heal Wholistic Nutrition, LLC

Refunds:

All sales, and services are final. At Heal Wholistic Nutrition, LLC, accessible from <https://www.HealWholisticNutrition.com> (and/or any of its subdomains), one of our main priorities is the satisfaction of our clients. Therefore, we will strive to resolve any issues you have, however due to the nature of our services, a refund cannot be submitted on information, education, tools, tips, coaching services or any other tangible or intangible services you receive from Heal Wholistic Nutrition.

Exchange of services:

Once we have confirmed the details of your request to change programs, we will gladly alter the program to better suit your needs with the following conditions:

- If the program the client is changing to has a higher cost, the client would pay the difference based on the amount of weeks left in the program.
- The number of weeks left is determined by the clients' original start date for the original coaching plan.

Shipping:

Shipping does not apply to any of coaching programs, eBooks, meal plans, membership, etc. All our products (eBooks, course materials, etc.) are digital and therefore do not require physical shipping.

For all products purchased through affiliate programs (i.e., Fullscript, Primal Kitchen, etc.), questions about shipping, refunds and returns must be submitted to their customer service department. Customer service information can be obtained using any of the affiliate links or going directly to their websites.
